Seminar Chair's Welcome

On behalf of the organising committee and INSOL International, we are very pleased to invite you to Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia for this one day seminar, held in association with the Insolvency Practitioners Association of Malaysia (IPAM).

INSOL International is a worldwide federation which specializes in turnaround and insolvency and currently has over 40 Member Associations with over 10,300 professionals from all over the world participating as members.

This is the first INSOL seminar in Malaysia and it promises to be a lively and interactive one. Each session has been designed to involve the attendees in discussion and debate with the speakers on every panel, who are leading players in the insolvency and restructuring field with experience in insolvency proceedings and matters both in Malaysia and in the region at large.

The seminar programme is set to cover cross-border restructuring in the region, drawing some comparisons with US legislation, legal & legislation development in Asia and the challenges facing the insolvency profession and finally going forward, the direction of the insolvency industry.

I have no doubt that you will find this seminar both rewarding and stimulating. Attendance is limited and I encourage you to register early to secure your place.

I look forward to welcoming all of you to Kuala Lumpur and meeting you at the seminar.

Ooi Woon Chee
President of IPAM
